Management's Responsibility for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act') with respect to the preparation and presentation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014. AUDITORS' REPORT ON THE "INFORMATION RELATING TO THE SYSTEM OF INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING (ICFR)" OF NH HOTEL GROUP, S.A. FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDED ON DECEMBER 31st, 2017

To the Directors of
NH HOTEL GROUP, S.A.:

As requested by the Board of Directors of NH HOTEL GROUP, S.A. ("the Entity") and in accordance with our proposal-letter of January 22nd, 2018, we have applied certain procedures to the accompanying "Information relating to the ICFR" of NH HOTEL GROUP, S.A. for the fiscal year ended on December 31st, 2017, which summarises the internal control procedures of the Entity in relation to its annual financial reporting.

The Board of Directors is responsible for adopting the appropriate measures in order to reasonably guarantee the implementation, maintenance and supervision of an adequate internal control system and for making improvements to that system and for preparing and establishing the content of the accompanying information relating to the ICFR system included in section F) of the accompanying Annual Corporate Governance Report (ACGR).

It should be noted in this regard, irrespective of the quality of the design and operational effectiveness of the internal control system adopted by the Entity in relation to its annual financial reporting, that the system can only permit reasonable, but not absolute, assurance in connection with the objectives pursued, due to the limitations inherent to any internal control system.

In the course of our audit work on the financial statements and pursuant to Technical Auditing Standards, the sole purpose of our assessment of the internal control of the Entity was to enable us to establish the scope, nature and timing of the audit procedures to be applied to the Entity's financial statements. Therefore, our assessment of internal control performed for the purposes of the aforementioned audit of financial statements was not sufficiently extensive to enable us to express a specific opinion on the effectiveness of the internal control over the regulated annual financial reporting.

For the purpose of issuing this report, we applied exclusively the specific procedures described below and indicated in the Guidelines on the Auditors' Report on the Information relating to the System of Internal Control over Financial Reporting of Listed Companies, published by the Spanish National Securities Market Commission on its website, which establishes the work to be performed, the minimum scope thereof and the content of this report. Since the work resulting from such procedures has, in any case, a reduced scope that is significantly less extensive than that of an audit or a review of the internal control system, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness thereof, or on its design or operating effectiveness, in relation to the Entity's annual financial reporting for the fiscal year ended on December 31st, 2017 described in the accompanying information on the ICFR system. Therefore, had we applied procedures additional to those established in the aforementioned Guidelines or performed an audit or a review of the internal control over the regulated annual financial reporting, other matters or aspects might have been disclosed which would have been reported to you.

Also, since this special engagement does not constitute an audit of financial statements and is not subject to the consolidated Spanish audit law, we do not express an audit opinion in the terms provided for in that Law.

I have also fulfilled my other responsibilities in accordance with the Code.

I confirm that the independence declaration required by the Corporations Act 2001 and section 60-40 of the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012, which has been given to the directors of the Company, would be in the same terms if given to the directors as at the time of this auditor's report.

Deloitte, S.L. (Spain) is a member firm of the network of member firms of the Deloitte network of member firms.

What is an audit committee report. What are the responsibilities of an external auditor.

1. This standard requires the auditor to communicate with the company's audit committee¹ regarding certain matters related to the conduct of an audit² and to obtain certain information from the audit committee relevant to the audit. This standard also requires the auditor to establish an understanding of the terms of the audit engagement with the audit committee and to record that understanding in an engagement letter. 2. Other Public Company Accounting Oversight Board ("PCAOB") rules and standards identify additional matters to be communicated to a company's audit committee (see Appendix B). Various laws or regulations also require the auditor to communicate certain matters to the audit committee.³ The communication requirements of this standard do not modify or replace communications to the audit committee required by such other PCAOB rules and standards, and other laws or regulations. Nothing in this standard precludes the auditor from communicating other matters to the audit committee. Objectives³. The objectives of the auditor are to: Communicate to the audit committee the responsibilities of the auditor in relation to the audit and establish an understanding of the terms of the audit engagement with the audit committee; Obtain information from the audit committee relevant to the audit; Communicate to the audit committee an overview of the overall audit strategy and timing of the audit; and Provide the audit committee with timely observations arising from the audit that are significant to the financial reporting process. Note: "Communicate to," as used in this standard, is meant to encourage effective two-way communication between the auditor and the audit committee throughout the audit to assist in understanding matters relevant to the audit. Appointment and Retention⁴. Significant issues Discussed with Management in Connection with the Auditor's Appointment or Retention⁴. The auditor should discuss with the audit committee any significant issues that the auditor discussed with management in connection with the appointment or retention of the auditor, including significant discussions regarding the application of accounting principles and auditing standards. Establish an Understanding of the Terms of the Audit⁵. The auditor should establish an understanding of the terms of the audit engagement with the audit committee. This understanding includes communicating to the audit committee the following: The objective of the audit; The responsibilities of the auditor; and The responsibilities of management. 6. The auditor should record the understanding of the terms of the audit engagement in an engagement letter and provide the engagement letter to the audit committee annually. The auditor should have the engagement letter executed by the appropriate party or parties on behalf of the company.⁴ If the appropriate party or parties are other than the audit committee, or its chair on behalf of the audit committee, the auditor should determine that the audit committee has acknowledged and agreed to the terms of the engagement. Note: Appendix C describes matters that the auditor should include in the engagement letter about the terms of the audit engagement.⁷ If the auditor cannot establish an understanding of the terms of the audit engagement with the audit committee, the auditor should decline to accept, continue, or perform the engagement. Obtaining Information and Communicating the Audit Strategy⁸. Obtaining Information Relevant to the Audit⁸. The auditor should inquire of the audit committee about whether it is aware of matters relevant to the audit,⁵ including, but not limited to, violations or possible violations of laws or regulations.⁶ Overall Audit Strategy, Timing of the Audit, and Significant Risks⁹. The auditor should communicate to the audit committee an overview of the overall audit strategy, including the timing of the audit,⁷ and discuss with the audit committee the significant risks identified during the auditor's risk assessment procedures.⁸ Note: This overview is intended to provide information about the audit, but not specific details that would compromise the effectiveness of the audit procedures.¹⁰ As part of communicating the overall audit strategy, the auditor should communicate the following matters to the audit committee, if applicable: The nature and extent of specialized skill or knowledge needed to perform the planned audit procedures or evaluate the audit results related to significant risks;⁹ The extent to which the auditor plans to use the work of the company's internal auditors in an audit of financial statements;¹⁰ The extent to which the auditor plans to use the work of internal auditors, company personnel (in addition to internal auditors), and third parties working under the direction of management or the audit committee when performing an audit of internal control over financial reporting;¹¹ The names, locations, and planned responsibilities¹² of other independent public accounting firms or other persons, who are not employed by the auditor, that perform audit procedures in the current period audit; and Note: The term "other independent public accounting firms" in the context of this communication includes firms that perform audit procedures in the current period audit regardless of whether they otherwise have any relationship with the auditor. The basis for the auditor's determination that the auditor can serve as principal auditor, if significant parts of the audit are to be performed by other auditors.¹³ 11. The auditor should communicate to the audit committee significant changes to the planned audit strategy or the significant risks initially identified and the reasons for such changes.¹⁴ Results of the Audit¹⁵. Accounting Policies and Practices, Estimates, and Significant Unusual Transactions¹². The auditor should communicate to the audit committee the following matters: Significant accounting policies and practices.¹⁵ (1) Management's initial selection of, or changes in, significant accounting policies or the application of such policies in the current period; and (2) The effect on financial statements or disclosures of significant accounting policies in (i) controversial areas or (ii) areas for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus, or diversity in practice. Critical accounting policies and practices. All critical accounting policies and practices to be used, including:¹⁶ (1) The reasons certain policies and practices are considered critical; and (2) How current and anticipated future events might affect the determination of whether certain policies and practices are considered critical. Note: Critical accounting policies and practices, as defined in Appendix A, are a company's accounting policies and practices that are both most important to the portrayal of the company's financial condition and results, and require management's most difficult, subjective, or complex judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates about the effects of matters that are inherently uncertain. Critical accounting policies and practices are tailored to specific events in the current year, and the accounting policies and practices that are considered critical might change from year to year. Critical accounting estimates. (1) A description of the process management used to develop critical accounting estimates;¹⁷ (2) Management's significant assumptions used in critical accounting estimates that have a high degree of subjectivity;¹⁸ and (3) Any significant changes management made to the processes used to develop critical accounting estimates or significant assumptions, a description of management's reasons for the changes, and the effects of the changes on the financial statements.¹⁹ Significant unusual transactions. (1) Significant transactions that are outside the normal course of business for the company or that otherwise appear to be unusual due to their timing, size, or nature;²⁰ and (2) The policies and practices management used to account for significant unusual transactions. Note: As part of its communications to the audit committee, management might communicate some or all of the matters in paragraph 12. If management communicates any of these matters, the auditor does not need to communicate them at the same level of detail as management, as long as the auditor (1) participated in management's discussion with the audit committee, (2) affirmatively confirmed to the audit committee that management has adequately communicated these matters, and (3) with respect to critical accounting policies and practices, identified for the audit committee those accounting policies and practices that the auditor considers critical. The auditor should communicate any omitted or inadequately described matters to the audit committee. Auditor's Evaluation of the Quality of the Company's Financial Reporting¹³. The auditor should communicate to the audit committee the following matters: Qualitative aspects of significant accounting policies and practices. (1) The results of the auditor's evaluation of, and conclusions about, the qualitative aspects of the company's significant accounting policies and practices, including situations in which the auditor identified bias in management's judgments about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements;²¹ and (2) The results of the auditor's evaluation of the differences between (i) estimates best supported by the audit evidence and (ii) estimates included in the financial statements, which are individually reasonable, but indicate a possible bias on the part of the company's management.²² Difficult or Contentious Matters for which the Auditor Consulted¹⁵. The auditor should communicate to the audit committee matters that are difficult or contentious for which the auditor consulted outside the engagement team and that the auditor reasonably determined are relevant to the audit committee's oversight of the financial reporting process. Management Consultation with Other Accountants¹⁶. When the auditor is aware that management consulted with other accountants about significant auditing or accounting matters and the auditor has identified a concern regarding such matters, the auditor should communicate to the audit committee his or her views about such matters that were the subject of such consultation. Going Concern¹⁷. The auditor should communicate to the audit committee, when applicable, the following matters relating to the auditor's evaluation of the company's ability to continue as a going concern:²⁸ If the auditor believes there is substantial doubt about the company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time, the conditions and events that the auditor identified that, when considered in the aggregate, indicate that there is substantial doubt;²⁹ If the auditor concludes, after consideration of management's plans, that substantial doubt about the company's ability to continue as a going concern is alleviated, the basis for the auditor's conclusion, including elements the auditor identified within management's plans that are significant to overcoming the adverse effects of the conditions and events;³⁰ If the auditor concludes, after consideration of management's plans, that substantial doubt about the company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time remains;³¹ (1) The effects, if any, on the financial statements and the adequacy of the related disclosures;³² and (2) The effects on the auditor's report.³³ Uncorrected and Corrected Misstatements¹⁸. The auditor should provide the audit committee with the schedule of uncorrected misstatements related to accounts and disclosures³⁴ that the auditor presented to management.³⁵ The auditor should discuss with the audit committee, or determine that management has adequately discussed with the audit committee, the basis for the determination that the uncorrected misstatements were immaterial, including the qualitative factors³⁶ considered. The auditor also should communicate that uncorrected misstatements or matters underlying those uncorrected misstatements could potentially cause future-period financial statements to be materially misstated, even if the auditor has concluded that the uncorrected misstatements are immaterial to the financial statements under audit.¹⁹ The auditor should communicate to the audit committee those corrected misstatements, other than those that are clearly trivial,³⁷ related to accounts and disclosures that might not have been detected except through the auditing procedures performed, and discuss with the audit committee the implications that such corrected misstatements might have on the company's financial reporting process. Material Written Communications²⁰. The auditor should communicate to the audit committee other material written communications between the auditor and management.³⁸ Departure from the Auditor's Standard Report²¹. The auditor should communicate to the audit committee the following matters related to the auditor's report: When the auditor expects to modify the opinion in the auditor's report, the reasons for the modification, and the wording of the report; and When the auditor expects to include explanatory language or an explanatory paragraph in the auditor's report, the reasons for the explanatory language or paragraph, and the wording of the explanatory language or paragraph. Disagreements with Management²². The auditor should communicate to the audit committee any disagreements with management about matters, whether or not satisfactorily resolved, that individually or in the aggregate could be significant to the company's financial statements or the auditor's report. Disagreements with management do not include differences of opinion based on incomplete facts or preliminary information that are later resolved by the auditor obtaining additional relevant facts or information prior to the issuance of the auditor's report. Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit²³. The auditor should communicate to the audit committee any significant difficulties encountered during the audit. Significant difficulties encountered during the audit include, but are not limited to: Significant delays by management, the unavailability of company personnel, or an unwillingness by management to provide information needed for the auditor to perform his or her audit procedures; An unreasonably brief time within which to complete the audit; Unexpected extensive effort required by the auditor to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence; Unreasonable management restrictions encountered by the auditor on the conduct of the audit; and Management's unwillingness to make or extend its assessment of the company's ability to continue as a going concern when requested by the auditor. Note: Difficulties encountered by the auditor during the audit could represent a scope limitation,³⁹ which may result in the auditor modifying the auditor's opinion or withdrawing from the engagement. Other Matters²⁴. The auditor should communicate to the audit committee other matters arising from the audit that are significant to the oversight of the company's financial reporting process. This communication includes, among other matters, complaints or concerns regarding accounting or auditing matters that have come to the auditor's attention during the audit and the results of the auditor's procedures regarding such matters.⁴⁰ Form and Documentation of Communications²⁵. The auditor should communicate to the audit committee the matters in this standard, either orally or in writing,⁴¹ unless otherwise specified in this standard. The auditor must document the communications in the work papers, whether such communications took place orally or in writing.⁴² Note: If, as part of its communications to the audit committee, management communicated some or all of the matters identified in paragraphs 12 or 18 and, as a result, the auditor did not communicate these matters at the same level of detail as management, the auditor must include a copy of or a summary of management's communications provided to the audit committee in the audit documentation. Timing²⁶. All audit committee communications required by this standard should be made in a timely manner and prior to the issuance of the auditor's report.⁴³ The appropriate timing of a particular communication to the audit committee depends on factors such as the significance of the matters to be communicated and corrective or follow-up action needed, unless other timing requirements are specified by PCAOB rules or standards or the securities laws. Note: An auditor may communicate to only the audit committee chair if done in order to communicate matters in a timely manner during the audit. The auditor, however, should communicate such matters to the audit committee prior to the issuance of the auditor's report.
